POLICY AGAINST CHILD PROTECTION AND ABUSE

SIDE STAR HOTELS play an important role in the conservation policy for the protection of the rights of children everywhere, both for guests who have children, as well as the creation of a safe environment for the children living in the area.

In principle, we adopt the rules of ECPAT for the protection of children from sexual exploitation. Our Hotels have rules in place against sexual abuse and the exploitation of children is protected by all employees who are aware of the Child Protection Rule. Guests are contacted in these matters and the authority will be informed about any suspicious behaviour immediately.

SIDE STAR HOTELS act as part of the local community whether it speaking with hotel employees and their families and will maintain in both categories of children are committed to all kinds of abuse protection.
